

Paradox F Work Shoe

Art nr: 1001809

Unisex

Paradox, a new series of lightweight, comfortable and soft safety shoes from Monitor. This series has a midsole in an extremely soft ETPU material with a Return/Rebound of over 58%. The outsole is made of non-slip rubber, which also has one of the best SRC non-slip ratings on the market! The shoe is lined with a moisture-absorbing fabric, and the new Monitor Pro-Support insole is made of EVA with extra cushioning zones under the heel and forefoot. If you are looking for classic yet modern uniform shoe with all the comfort of a trainer, then this is the shoe for you.
